The Modesty of Women

Naturally makes them shrink from the indelicate questions, the obnoxious examinations, which some physicians consider essential in the treatment of diseases of women. Yet, if help can be had, it is better to submit to this ordeal than let the disease grow and spread. The trouble is that so often the woman undergoes all the annoyance and shame for nothing. Thousands of women who have been cured by Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription write in appreciation of the cure which dispelled the examinations and local treatments. There is no other medicine so sure and safe for delicate women as "Favorite Prescription." It cures debilitating drains, irregularity and all the troubles of women. It is strictly non-alcoholic, non-secret, all its ingredients being printed on its bottle-wrapper; contains no deleterious or habit-forming drugs, and every native medicinal herb entering into its composition has the full endorsement of those eminent in the several schools of medical practice. Some of these numerous and strongest of professional endorsements of its ingredients, will be found in a pamphlet wrapped around the bottle, also in a booklet mailed free on request, by Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y. These professional endorsements should have far more weight than any amount of the ordinary lay, or non-professional testimonials.

The most intelligent women now-a-days insist on knowing what they take as medicine instead of opening their mouths like a lot of young birds and gulping down whatever is offered them. "Favorite Prescription" is of known composition. It makes weak women strong and sick women well.

Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y. 21 one-cent stamps for paper-covered, or 31 stamps for cloth-bound. If sick consult the Doctor, free of charge by letter. All such communications are held sacredly confidential.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets invigorate and regulate stomach, liver and bowels.

THE FERRER CASE.

The Spanish cabinet has completed its examination of the papers in the case of Francisco Ferrer, the revolutionary leader who has been condemned to death at Barcelona, but its decision has not yet been made public. It is understood, however, that the death sentence has been confirmed and that the government has refused all clemency.

In Rome and in various of the leading towns of Italy demonstrations occurred yesterday to protest against the condemnation of Ferrer. Twenty thousand workmen gathered and after violently denouncing Spain and the action of the Spanish government against Ferrer, directed their attention to the Spanish embassy. An immense crowd of the workmen attempted to demonstrate before the embassy, but the troops and police closed the bridge. Later they were compelled to charge the crowd, some persons on both sides being slightly wounded. A large number of arrests were made.

It is reported that the pope and Cardinal Merry del Val, the papal secretary, are greatly interested in the events in Spain and have decided to ascertain if through the intervention of the Vatican it would be possible to obtain from King Alfonso a pardon for Ferrer.

The daughter of Ferrer yesterday sent a touching message to King Alfonso, appealing to the monarch's generosity and chivalry to save the life of her father.

The socialist's held a big mass-meeting in Paris last night as a demonstration of sympathy for Ferrer. M. Jaures, socialist leader in the chamber of deputies, and others spoke violently in denouncing the conduct of the alleged revolutionist's trial, describing the proceedings as a judicial comedy. Some of the papers yesterday characterized the outcome of the court-martial as a travesty on justice and declared that it may become a second Dreyfus case.

FIGHT WITH A MANIAC.

Harry Fleischman, twenty-four years old, a hospital attendant, fought a battle for his life about noon yesterday, while in a Washington ambulance with an insane man, named John Burke. He succeeded in subduing his insane opponent.

Fleischman was thrown to the floor of the ambulance before he realized his danger, and it was only by chance he caught the wrist of the lunatic as he swung a knife high above his head.

While Fleischman lay on the floor, pinned down by the knees of the insane man, and fearing every second lest the knife be buried in his breast, the driver sat calmly on his seat, unaware of the desperate struggle in the box-like compartment behind him.

It was not until Fleischman screamed, "Help!" several times that the driver looked through a small glass window and saw the danger of the hospital attendant. The driver stopped the horse suddenly, jumped from the seat, ran behind the ambulance, unlocked the door, and went to the assistance of Fleischman.

The knife was taken from the crazed patient, who took a seat on the side of the ambulance. Fleischman said he was not afraid to continue the ride inside the ambulance with the patient, and the driver acceded to his seat and whipped up the horse and the patient was later placed in a hospital.

Burke had secured a physician's scalp before he entered the ambulance and with this he attempted to kill Fleischman.

MORSE BREAKS DOWN.

Officials at the Tomb's prison in New York reported yesterday that Charles W. Morse, the financier, had been taken suddenly ill and after spending a restless night had been visited by the prison physician, who administered a sleeping potion. The illness was said to be a nervous breakdown following the failure Monday of Morse's appeal from his 15-year prison sentence. Mr. Morse was reported last night as resting quietly. His illness is not believed to be of a serious nature, his physicians said.

Morse's counsel, Meritt W. Littleton, called at the Federal Building yesterday to learn the prospects of having Morse released on bail again pending the final review of the case by the United States Supreme Court on a writ of certiorari, for which a 40 days' stay of sentence has been granted.

Mr. Littleton received no encouragement from the court, it was announced later. The justices informed him that it was not the practice of the United States Court of Appeals to grant a prisoner's release on bail pending a review of its decision by the United States Supreme Court. They did not intimate that any exception might be made in the case because of the prisoner's reported breakdown.

Do the right thing if you have Nasal Catarrh. Get Ely's Cream Balm at once. Don't touch the catarrh with your fingers, for they contain bacteria. Ely's Cream Balm releases the secretions that inflame the nasal passages and the throat, whereas medicines made with mercury merely dry up the secretions and leave you no better than you were. In a word, Ely's Cream Balm is a real remedy, not a delusion. All druggists, 50 cents, or mailed by Ely Brothers, 56 Warren street, New York.
